

CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES IN COMMUNICATING SCIENCE TO THE PUBLIC WORKSHOP

IANAS Building ties with Academies and Science Journalist

VENEZUELA	María Teresa Arbeláez
	Director of Public Affairs (DPA), reports directly to the Rector of the university. There are three branches and one office depending from the DPA: Public Relations and University Protocol; Media and Communications, Inter-institutional Relations and Press and Public Relations of the Littoral Campus of the USB. Within its direct responsibilities there are: editor of daily digital newsletter USB in Brief, the monthly newspaper The Paper of Bolivar and informative blog http://usbnoticias.info; as well as corporate and institutional relations, development and maintenance of the communicational policies of the USB; publisher and editor of Facts and Figures and Institutional Agenda 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009, coordinator of Galileo Camp and Ecoroute Program (Trails) and Galilee camps for teachers of high school education. It advises the university's authorities on communications; Communication campaigns designed and developed according to the needs of the institution. Email: marbelae@usb.ve
	Andrea Small Carmona
	Desde 2006 he trabajado en diferentes periódicos de circulación nacional en Venezuela, dedicándome a la divulgación científica y de ambiente, aunque también he trabajado de cerca con temas de educación universitaria y salud. Desde noviembre de 2009, me he interesado en aprender más sobre herramientas multimedia para periodistas. Esta búsqueda me llevado a aprender sobre fotografía, edición de audio y video, medios sociales y técnicas de cobertura de eventos para producción de contenidos multiplataforma. Especialidades Periodismo científico, periodismo digital, community management Email: small.andrea@gmail.com

Academy of Physical, Mathematical and Natural Sciences of Venezuela www.acfiman.org.ve

IANAS The Inter-American Network of Academies of Sciences www.ianas.org